The Law Of One, The Law of Duality, God's Law

The Law Of One

The Law of One, suggests that all things are interconnected and part of a single, unified source of creation, often referred to as the One Infinite Creator.
It posits that there is no true separation, only varying degrees of awareness of this fundamental unity.
The Law of One also introduces the concept of densities of consciousness, where entities evolve spiritually through learning and experience.

God's Law Of One

Rom 12:4-5 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Key Concepts*:*

Oneness*:*
The core principle is that all beings and all of creation are fundamentally one, interconnected with the One Infinite Creator.

John 17:21-23 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

Interconnectedness*:*
Every action has a reaction, and all things are interdependent.

Densities Of Consciousness*:*
The Law of One describes different levels of spiritual awareness or "densities," where entities progress through learning and experience.

Free Will*:*
The Law of One emphasizes the importance of respecting the free will of others and not infringing upon it.

Col 3:25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

In essence, the Law of One encourages:

Love And Compassion*:*
Recognizing the divine spark within all beings and fostering love and reverence for all.

1Ch 16:15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

Spiritual Growth*:*
Understanding that life is a journey of learning and evolution through experience and striving to progress towards higher levels of consciousness.

2Peter 3:18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

Law of Duality

In spirituality, the law of duality describes the existence of opposing forces that are integral to the nature of reality, such as good and evil, light and darkness, or pleasure and pain. It suggests that these seemingly opposing forces are actually interconnected and interdependent, and that one cannot exist without the other. This concept is found in various spiritual traditions. Emphasizing the need to transcend dualistic perceptions to realize a deeper unity.
Here's a more detailed breakdown:

6 Opposing Forces*:*

Duality posits that the universe is governed by pairs of opposing forces or concepts. Examples include:

Opposing Force; Male and Female

Mark 10:6-8 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

Opposing Force; Positive and Negative

Psalms 119:139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Mark 14:38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

Opposing Force; Good and Evil

Mat 12:35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

Opposing Force; Joy and Sorrow

John 16:20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

Opposing Force; Light and Darkness

John 1:5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

Opposing Force; Hot and Cold

Rev 3:15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

Interdependence:*
Rather than being separate and contradictory, these opposing forces are seen as interconnected and interdependent. They define each other and create the framework for experience. For instance, you can't truly understand happiness without experiencing sadness, or light without experiencing darkness.

Acts 26:18a To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light,

Transcending Duality:*
Many spiritual traditions suggest that true enlightenment or spiritual realization involves moving beyond the limitations of dualistic thinking. This means recognizing the unity that underlies apparent opposites.

2Co 4:16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

Examples In Spiritual Traditions:*
The concept of yin and yang embodies duality, where seemingly opposing forces are actually complementary aspects of a unified whole.
The practice involves transcending the illusion of separateness (duality) and realizing the interconnectedness of all things.

Php 2:2-5 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Beyond Perception:*
Duality is often linked to the way we perceive the world through our senses and ego. Spiritual practices often aim to shift our perception from a dualistic view to a more unified and non-dualistic one.

1Co 1:10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

Eph 4:31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
